The Flat Earth map

North Pole in the centre, Antarctica as the ice around the rim. Every place is drawn at its true distance from the North Pole: 10,000 km to the Equator, 20,000 km to the rim. Map: FlatAtlas · flatatlas.app · Data: Natural Earth (public domain).